

Printed from

THE TIMES OF INDIA

ABUTA ceases work in JU

TNN | Nov 23, 2016, 11.09 AM IST

KOLKATA: Classes in Jadavpur University were affected on Tuesday as the local chapter of All Bengal University Teachers' Association (ABUTA) called for a cease work in protest against the state's decision to freeze re-engagement of teachers post retirement.

“The classes in all the four departments remained suspended on Tuesday following the protest,” said convener of ABUTA in JU, Gautam Maity . The ABUTA members also met the officiating vice-chancellor.